

Heather Russell-Simmons is an effective communicator and creative collaborator. She has lived in Windy Hills since 2017. Heather earned her BA, MA and MBA from the University of Kentucky; and works remotely for the Markey Cancer Center editing research grants and manuscripts. She is a committee member for Louisville's Walk to End Alzheimer's. If elected, she would like to increase the tree canopy and maintain open communication between the council and Windy Hills citizens